Letters to myself

Graça Pereira Coutinho

May 27 - June 30

Her Clique Lisbon
Largo do Contador Mor 4

“I have spent my life collecting sand and ashes on beaches, deserts, and cities, and gluing these materials onto sheets of paper. In the studio, smelling of acrylic paint, canvases to be stretched, immersed in a tunnel of creative energy, connected to the universe, having dreams, ideas. Dream reader, that’s what I am. I seek silence. I draw in the air. I write letters to myself, from my memories. I try to unite my various lives and understand the multitude of my ‘self’. To grasp my shadow is to carry it to a good, pleasant place. The chosen materials show the fragility and strength of the universe.”
